Work : This camp will be organised in collaboration with the orphanage house of Bab Ghmate. This orphanage house is the biggest social centre in Marrakech, and its one of the biggest centers tacking care of childrens in difficult situations in Morocco. The work consists at contributing to the campaigns of cleaning , painting and protecting the centre of Bab Ghmat orphanage house. Differents activities will be organised during the camp, thoses activities are mainly proposed by the general camp leader or by the Director of the center. During their work the volunteers will be leaded by a technician who will also organize the work programme. The general organization of the workcamp will be the responsibility of another animator; the volunteers are invited to contribute in the general organization by sharing the responsibility of the workcamp every day with this general animator.

Location: known as the "Red City", is the most important former imperial city in Morocco's history. The city of Marrakesh is the capital of the mid-southwestern economic region of Marrakech-Tensift-Al Haouz, near the foothills of the snow-capped Atlas Mountains. Like many North African cities, the city of Marrakesh comprises both an old fortified city (the médina) and an adjacent modern city (called Gueliz) for a total population of 1,070,000. It is served by Ménara International Airport (IATE code: RAK) and a rail link to Casablanca and the north. Marrakech has the largest traditional market (souk) in Morocco and also has one of the busiest squares in Africa and the world, Djemaa el Fna. The square bustles with acrobats, story-tellers, water sellers, dancers and musicians.

Food and Accommodation: The full accommodation will be in the Center. The food will be prepared by the volunteers; themselves (2v or 3v per day).
